

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Town of Ridgeway has the right to reject any application.

Chief Cooks check in for site locations by 5:00 P.M. November 1, 2019. EARLY ARRIVAL ENCOURAGED. Meat will arrive and be distributed at 3 P.M.

Boston Butts (16) are provided and may only be cooked above ground with wood, charcoal, gas or a combination.

Selling any other foods and drinks is PROHIBITED.

Contestants must provide their own supplies: Hats, aprons, tables, chairs, utensils, grill, wood, charcoal, gas, fire extinguisher, cooking ingredients, 150 foot extension cord, 100 foot garden hose, grill tent/cover, etc.

Beginning at 9:30 A.M. on November 2nd, judging begins. A plate of BBQ must be ready for tasting at the blind judging station. You MUST bring tickets from Friday night sales at this time as well.

The rest of the BBQ meat must be immediately available at the cooksite for sponsors and the general public. The general public will purchase tickets at central locations and can redeem at contestant grills for specified quantities of BBQ. Any other use or disposal of BBQ is PROHIBITED and violators may be ineligible to participate in future events. BBQ not redeemed for tickets becomes the property of the Town of Ridgeway.

Cooking areas may be decorated with non-offensive and non-business streamers, banners, flags, signs, etc., boasting about your team. COMPANY ADVERTISING IS NOT PERMITTED.

Cancellations after October 23rd may result in the cook team being billed $150 for the cost of the raw meat. "No shows" will be considered as cancellations.

All judging decisions are final.

This Cook-off is by invitation only.

The Pig on the Ridge Festival will provide each Cook Team with 16 Boston Butts (minimum) to cook for the competition. In order to compete, cook teams must choose a category in which to compete.

Selling other foods and drinks is PROHIBITED.

Cook Team Competition Categories

(This selection determines the division in which the cook team will compete for prizes.)

Category I -

- ◆ Chief Cook has been a contestant in more than two competitive BBQ Cook-offs.

Category II -

- ◆ Chief Cook has not been a contestant in more than two BBQ Cook-offs.

FRIDAY NIGHT
Nov. 1st
"NO PIGS ALLOWED"

Each Cook Team must participate in Friday night's festivities by cooking dishes other than pork. No entry fee is required. Participants are expected to prepare, at their own expense, a sufficient quantity of food for public samples (non-pork).

The festival will sell tickets for this event and will receive all proceeds. There is to be NO SELLING other foods and drinks. Participants will be judged for the competition by the number of tickets redeemed at each cook site with the winners in each category announced Saturday at the Awards Celebration. Tickets are to be submitted on Saturday morning when plates are brought for judging.

Several activities will be occurring Friday night, including a street dance. In 2017 about 3000 people turned out, so each cook team should prepare a sufficient quantity.
