Friday Night, Nov 5th

"No Pigs Allowed"

No entry fee is required.

Each Cook Team must participate in Friday night's festivities by cooking dishes other than pork. Participants are expected to prepare, at their own expense, a sufficient quantity of food for public samples (non-pork).

The festival will sell tickets for this event and will receive all proceeds. There is to be NO SELLING other foods and drinks.

Participants will be judged for the competition by the number of tickets redeemed at each cook site with the winners in each category announced Saturday at the Awards Celebration.

Several activities will be occurring Friday night, including a street dance. Previously, about 3000 people turned out, so each cook team should prepare a sufficient quantity.

Rules & Regulations

The Town of Ridgeway has the right to reject any application.
